FYI—the PFAS data now has its own MRID so if we do any more reviews involving the container issue and PFAS we can reference that MRID.

Thank you Kimberly!

Kerry- FYI the Eurofins studies now have MRID numbers, please see below.

Thanks,
Jackie

Yeah...like a Reg number. But if it isn't specific to reg number, I'll let the MERP team know.

Hi Kimberly,

An admin number like an EPA Reg. No.? Or an MRID number?

The document isnt specific to any product, and Kerry said they should get their own MRID numbers.

Does that help?

Jackie

Jackie...are these studies associated with an admin number?

Hi Kimberly,

Can the two attached studies receive an MRID and be placed in documentum/OPPIN? These are two studies that are tied into the Clarke pfas container issue. They have been submitted by the laboratory Eurofins and contain proprietary information that the lab does not want to share with Clarke. The information is however needed for Kerry's team's review.

Please let me know if you need additional information.

Many thanks,
Jackie

Hello Jacquelyn – we have been told that you would need this re-formatted SOP from us. Please remember to delete any unredacted SOP copies you may have.
